

OREGON JEWISH MUSEUM

Obsidians Bus Trip: Thurs, May 17, 2018

Leaders: Mary Ellen West, Jim Northrop

Load Bus at 7:30 a.m., depart at 8:00

Colorful and easy to read panels with pictures tell the stories.

This is an early Oregon history trip as well as learning about discrimination in its many forms, including the prominent early 20th century Ku Klux Klan. FEATURED EXHIBIT: *Vedem Underground examines the literary magazine written by Jewish teens imprisoned at Terezin, a Nazi camp in Czechoslovakia during the Second World War. The museum's location in Old Town Portland will give us an opportunity to view the changes made there in recent years.

Lunch (on your own) will be at Kornblatt's Jewish Deli, along with Jewish foods they have a full menu including burgers, salads and a wide variety of sandwiches...as well as New York style cheesecake.

Cost: Members $50.00; Non-Members $52.00 – Due May 1st

For reservation and payment instructions call:

Judy Adamcyk 541-302-8160

Online signup is also available.

Please make checks payable to: Obsidians Bus Trips Account