

Two Obsidian Extended Snow Trips

Big Lake Camp

January 14-16, 2018

Join us for a two-day ski and snowshoe trip to Big Lake Youth Camp, located near the summit of Santiam Pass. We will be skiing or snowshoeing into the camp which is approximately 3.5 miles. A snowcat will carry our gear. Accommodations are rustic with 2 persons per room, bathrooms and showers down the hall. Breakfasts and lunches on your own; Dinners prepared by the participants are included.

Obsidians skiing on Big Lake with Mt Washington in background.

On-line sign up for members will open Sunday, Dec 3; non-members Dec 6
Cost for members - $85; non-members - $90 ~ Maximum: 20 persons

Leader: Diane Schechter

Trillium Lake with Mt Hood in background

Mt Hood Kiwanis Camp

March 8-11, 2018

Another opportunity to play in the snow - a 3-day trip! The Mt Hood Kiwanis Camp is a few miles west of Government Camp. Activities will include xc or downhill skiing, snowshoeing and just relaxing in the lodge. The accommodations are rustic with 4-5 persons per room. Bathrooms are down the hall. Breakfasts and dinners are included; preparation and clean-up will be shared by the group.

On-line sign up for members will open Sunday, Jan 21; non-members Jan 24
Cost for members - $110; non-members - $115 ~ Maximum: 23 persons.

Leader: Lana Lindstrom

Get details for the above trips on the Obsidian home page (www.observians.org) under "Extended Trips" and available on the trip sign-up sheet after the trip opens for sign-up.